

PERSONAL DATA PROTECTION

At Intesa Sanpaolo Bank, we are aware of the importance of personal data protection, which is why we handle individuals' data responsibly and in accordance with the regulations governing the protection of personal data. In accordance with the arrangements laid down in the General Regulation on the Protection of Personal Data, commonly known as the GDPR, the Bank must properly inform the data subjects of all relevant facts of this processing.

The Bank has prepared General information on the protection of personal data (.pdf document in Slovenian language), which enables an individual to obtain all relevant information on the processing of his personal data in the Bank in one place. For more detailed information, fill out the Request application (.pdf document in Slovenian language).

The bank also provides a secure e-mail system, which enables the secure exchange of e-mail between the Bank and an external user. For more information, read the Instruction for using the system of secure communication by e-mail (.pdf).
